

Birthday wish

Cass Forkin, executive director, and Gene Petrucci, volunteer for the Twilight Wish Foundation granted Carl Blei's wish to celebrate his 92nd birthday. In his yard in Trevoze, with his family and friends, Blei was entertained July 3 by Paul Swanger and the Joyful Noise Singers and Chuckles the clown. Good friend and neighbor, Margaret Heritage wished for a fun birthday for Blei, who she affectionately called "the young at heart elderly gentleman." Blei sang, danced, and rode a motorcycle. He was photographed with Forkin, above. As his final wish surprise, Twilight Wish Foundation presented him with a certificate for four to a Lancaster dinner show of his choice.
